

2 TO 7 JULY 2019 NANYANG ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS

ORGANISED BY

ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC London

DIRECTOR'S Message

Dear Participants and Supporters of the Nanyang International Music Competition,

A very warm welcome to the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts, Singapore!

We are happy to present more than 80 semi-finalists from around the world, as they showcase their musical technique and sensitivity at the Lee Foundation Theatre over the course of the week.

We would like to acknowledge our piano jury members, some of the finest musicians and pedagogues from around the world: Ursula Oppens, Mikhail Khokhlov, Dina Parakhina, Mary Wu and Le Ho Hai, for sharing with us their wisdom and encouraging our young musicians in their endeavor.

We would also like to thank our sponsors Yamaha Music (Asia) Private Limited, and Mr. Kwan Ek Sion from Emmuanuel & Sons, for their strong support in making this event a success.

Thank you once again, and I wish you an enjoyable and fruitful week ahead.

JURY URSULA OPPENS

Ursula Oppens, a legend among American pianists, is widely admired for her original and perceptive readings of new music, but also for her knowing interpretations of the standard repertoire. No other artist alive today has commissioned and premiered more new works for the piano that have entered the permanent repertoire. Over the years, Ms. Oppens has premiered works by John Adams, Luciano Berio, Anthony Braxton, Elliott Carter, John Corigliano, Conlon Nancarrow, Charles Wuorinen, Julius Hemphill, John Harbison, Tobias Picker, and many more.

A prolific recording artist with five Grammy nominations, Ms. Oppens most recently released a recording of Frederic Rzewski's The People United Will Never Be Defeated, nominated for a Grammy in 2016, and Piano Songs, a collaboration with Meredith Monk. As an orchestral guest soloist, Ms. Oppens has performed with virtually all of the world's major orchestras; highlights include the New York Philharmonic, Los Angeles Philharmonic, Berlin Symphony, and London Philharmonic Orchestras. Ms. Oppens is also an avid chamber musician, performing with the Arditti, Juilliard, and Pacifica quartets, among others.

The 2018-19 season will bring Ms. Oppens to Merkin Concert Hall on February 2, 2019 for a celebration of her 75th birthday, as part of the Kaufman Music Center's newest series, Only at Merkin with Terrance McKnight. Designed to provoke insightful conversation and deepened appreciation of the creative process, the series' February concert will showcase Ms. Oppens in solo piano works written for her by Elliott Carter and John Corigliano, and will give the world premieres of a piano quintet by Laura Kaminsky alongside the Cassatt String Quartet and Tobias Picker's Ursula for solo piano.

Ursula Oppens joined the faculty of Mannes College in fall 2017, and is a Distinguished Professor of Music at Brooklyn College and the CUNY Graduate Center in New York City.

Hailed as 'one of the most gifted pianists of her generation' for her 'musical variety, profundity and sensitivity' by Ravel's protege Vlado Perlemuter, Mary Wu is also praised by the late Lord Yehudi Menuhin as having 'a captivating poetical quality to her playing'. European review praises Wu for "her extraordinary artistic quality, absolute mastery over the keyboard and magical virtuosity".

Starting from an early age, Mary Wu has performed extensively throughout the world as soloist and in chamber performances with artists including the late Lord Menuhin, Vlado Perlemuter, Richard Stoltzman, Colin Carr, the Maggini Quartet, Tasmin Little and appeared in major festivals. Wu has also collaborated with many major orchestras and has several CD recordings on BMG, ASV, Dutton and Universal Label.

Wu is a graduate of the Yehudi Menuhin School, the Royal College of Music and has completed her Doctoral degree from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. Her teachers include Mrs. Betty Drown, Peter Norris, Vlado Perlemuter, Louis Kentner, Kendall-Taylor and Gilbert Kalish.

A 2003 'Top Ten Outstanding Young Person in Hong Kong', Wu has won the Chappell Gold Medal of Royal College of Music, first prizes at the London Royal Overseas League Competition and the Mozart Bicentenary Competition of Asia, the 2010 ADC Hong Kong Best Artist (Music) award and was the president of the Ibiza International Piano Competition 2017 with Antonio Baciero.

JURY Le ho hai

Pianist Le Ho Hai began piano lessons with Professor Thai Thi Lien and graduated with a Bachelor of Music Degree in Piano Performance from the Ho Chi Minh City Conservatory of Music under the tutelage of Professor Tran Thanh Thao. He continued his professional studies in France with Professors Muriel Blaisse, Anne-Marie de Lavilléon, and the world-renowned pianist Désiré N'Kaoua and graduated with First Prize in Piano Performance of postgraduate in the Cycle de Perfectionnement at the Saint-Maur National Conservatory of Music and at the Versailles National Conservatory of Music. He participated in many competitions and won Second Prize at the National Music Competition in Vietnam, 1993 and First Prize at the Concours Musical Regional d'Ile-de-France in Paris, 1999.

LeHo Hai has performed as a soloist with the Symphony Orchestra of Saint - Maur National Conservatory of Music, the Ho Chi Minh City Ballet Symphony Orchestra and Opera, as well as chamber music with violinists Maryvonne Le Dizès, Sylvie Gazeau, Nguyen Huu Nguyen, pianists Patrick Zygmanowski, Boris Kraljevic and Van Hung Cuong. He has been invited to be in a jury panel in many piano competitions in Vietnam and abroad. His students have won top awards in many national and international competitions.

Le Ho Hai was the Vice-Chairperson of the Organizing Committee of the International Piano Festival 2011 and 2013 in Vietnam. He is currently the Head of Piano Department at the Ho Chi Minh City Conservatory of Music, Vietnam.

JURY MIKHAIL Khokhlov

Mikhail Khokhlov is one of the most authoritative figures in the field of childhood music education. He is a teacher, pianist, conductor and public figure who has spent the last thirty years leading the famous Gnessin Special School of Music, Moscow. During which, the school has gained international fame and become known as one of the best institutions in Russia in the field of professional music education.

Mikhail Khokhlov was born and educated in Moscow, Russia. In 1981, he graduated from the Moscow State Tchaikovsky Conservatory, under the tutelage of renowned pedagogue, Professor Vera Gornostaeva. He went on to pursue a post-graduate course where he studied conducting with Yuri Simonov and Dmitry Kitayenko. Upon graduating from the conservatory, he concertized in the Soviet Union, England, Austria, Germany, Israel and the USA.

Khokhlov is also the artistic director and conductor of the "Gnessin Virtuosos", a youth orchestra that he founded in 1990. The orchestra holds performances regularly both in Russia and abroad. In recent years, the orchestra has won the International Youth Orchestra Competition in Spain, and also the 1st prize of the Moscow Mayoral Grants.

Khokhlov's work in the field of pedagogy has garnered him much respect. His students successfully enter universities and conservatories; many have continued to pursue a career in music. Many of his students, such as Nikolai Tokarev, Eduard Kunz and Dmitry Shishkin have met with great success and international recognition.

JURY DINA Parakhina

Dina Parakhina was born and educated in Russia. She graduated from the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatoire and became one of the youngest ever teachers at its Central Music School.

She combines teaching with a busy performing career, touring as a soloist and collaborating with outstanding instrumentalists, singers, conductors and major orchestras. She has given recitals as well as TV and radio broadcasts at the most prestigious venues in Russia, Europe and the Far East.

In 1988, Dina became the solo pianist for the Bolshoi Theatre Orchestra. After moving to the UK in 1996, Dina's engagements have included regular appearances with the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra at the Proms, performances of Stravinsky's Petrushka with the London Symphony Orchestra at the Barbican, Prokofiev's Second Piano Concerto at St John's Smith Square, Rachmaninov's Third Piano Concerto with the Worthing Symphony Orchestra, and a solo recital at the Bridgewater Hall in Manchester. She has made a number of recordings and live broadcasts with BBC Radio 3.

Dina is an outstanding teacher and is on the faculty of Royal College of Music as well as Royal Northern College of Music and Chetham's School of Music in Manchester. Many of her students have been laureates at international competitions. As an inspirational mentor Dina has presented many large scale projects featuring her students as well as herself in prestigious venues including the small hall of the Moscow Conservatoire, Royal College of Music and Royal Northern College of Music concert halls and the Carole Nash Recital Hall at Chetham's. Dina's students have performed the complete sonatas of Medtner, Scriabin and Prokofiev as well as the complete partitas of Bach, and major works by Schumann.

In 2012 Dina Parakhina established the "Torre de Canyamel International Piano Festival and Summer Academy" in Mallorca, Spain, and she will be enjoying the fruits of this event for the 9th time in summer 2019.

NAFA

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music recognises that 21st century musicians need new skills to help them stay relevant to the industry and to the wider community. The music curriculum is skills-centred and develops students to a high level of specialism.

This is designed to offer you wider career choices through a faculty specific, practice-led and industry-focused curriculum which imbue skills and artistic creativity, allowing you to adapt and to navigate through the fast-changing industry.

The programme is also unique in that it offers specialised pathways for the training of Western or Chinese music, and you have the added opportunity to attend and to participate in cross-cultural performances.

Our international faculty has the expertise to nurture highly creative and musically versatile professionals. Our multiculturalism offers regional and international music students a great environment to study and perform. We regularly host artistes from all over the world for masterclasses, workshops, lectures and specialist support.

In addition to weekly public performances on campus at the Lee Foundation Theatre, our student soloists, ensembles and orchestra are heard regularly in performances throughout Singapore. We have strong links with professional arts organisations in Singapore and renowned music conservatoires overseas, in particular The Royal College of Music in London and the Central Conservatory of Music in Beijing, holding us to some of the world's highest musical standards.

NAFA and the Royal College of Music, London

A collaborative partnership with the Royal College of Music (RCM) represents a new model for arts institutions in Singapore. The NAFA-RCM model is a 3-year diploma plus 2-year degree programme, delivered right here in Singapore.

Since August 2011, NAFA has offered a joint-curriculum programme with one of the world's leading conservatoires which has groomed numerous eminent music professionals from all over the world since 1882. The degree programme provides specialised music education and professional training at an international level and will be instrumental in raising the standard of music performance and composition in Singapore and the region.

Graduates will receive the internationally-recognised Bachelor of Music with Honours degree under the RCM's own Royal Charter. The RCM is the only UK conservatoire entrusted to award its own degrees.

The NAFA Music Programme

Comprises of:

- Diploma in Music
- Diploma in Music Teaching
- Bachelor of Music with Honours in collaboration with the Royal College of Music, London

A Music Preparatory Course runs from January each year, providing 12 weeks of study for young musicians' post-secondary school education in Singapore to prepare them for full-time study in music.

A Specialist Diploma in Orchestral Conducting is also offered to provide professional development opportunities to conductors working with orchestras, symphonic wind bands, or other instrumental ensembles in various professional contexts.

To find out more about our courses, please contact Student Admissions Office at admissions@nafa.edu.sg or call 6512 4071.

For more details on upcoming concerts, masterclasses and other events by the School of Music, please email music@nafa.edu.sg or call 6512 4179, or visit http://www.nafa.edu.sg/events.
